ONEG SHABBAT
Member Information & Fees

The Oneg Shabbat provides fancy parve pastries, brownies, cookies and fruit. Hot and cold beverages, challah and kiddush wine all served on silver trays.

Sisterhood volunteers obtain all items, set up and serve your guests.

Why we serve parve food:

The Friday night dinner traditionally includes meat. Since many dessert items are made with milk, they cannot be eaten for three hours after a “meat” dinner. Parve food contains neither meat nor milk and can be used with either.

For Your Information:

Nothing can be brought into or taken out of the synagogue during Shabbat. You must arrange for delivery of flowers, head coverings or food items before 2_{PM} on Friday.

Havdalah & Afternoon Bar/Bat Mitzvahs are required to sponsor the Oneg Shabbat.

Oneg Shabbat..... $200

This includes regular Temple attendance and up to 50* of your guests.
